Week of
Dec. 18-22, 2017

We are Learning..

Religion-We are focusing on the importance of Christmas, the birth of our Savior.

Math-The class will be adding and subtracting fractions with unlike denominators, reviewing least common denominators, working with Roman numerals and estimating. 5th grade will also be comparing decimals with addition and subtraction and multiplying whole numbers with fractions.

Social Studies-We are finishing up chapter 8 on how the Great Awakening shaped America through the Gospel.

Due to the half day on Friday, the Spelling test will be on Thursday. The students did a great job at our musical!! Everyone have a Merry Christmas and a blessed New Year. See you in 2018!
