Week of
October 9-13, 2017

We are Learning..

Religion-We are discussing the Israelites' long journey through the wilderness to the promise land.

Math- We are estimating quotients and reviewing division. 5th grade is reducing fractions to its lowest terms and working with proper/improper fractions.

Language- We are using singular and plural possessive nouns, working with reference books.

Social Studies-We are finishing chapter 4 and the students will get a study guide for the test on ch.3&4 next week.

If you would like to turn in an item for our carnival basket this is the last week to do so. The basket theme for 4th/5th grade is camping! All baked goods for our cake walk booth are to be brought in on Friday. Thank you for your help and support!
