Conference Speakers

Dr. Kim Marxhausen is a Lutheran educator with a doctorate in Educational Psychology. She has authored three books, and she writes the Parent Pages newsletter for LCMS School Ministry as well as a parenting and devotional blog. She will present "God Chose You: The Caregiver's Journey" based on her personal experience as a caregiver for two loved ones with dementia that provided the inspiration for her book, Weary Joy.

Rev. Scott Licht is the Executive Director of Finance and Operations for Lutherans For Life. He is also the pastor at Shepherd of the Prairie Lutheran Church in Huxley, Iowa. He will speak on "God Chose You" as he shares how God chose you – and you – and you – regardless of your age, stage, ability, past, present, or future. He will especially consider victims and those who are vulnerable to human trafficking.

Patti Smith is a native of Southern California currently living in Huntington Beach. She is a wife, mother, grandmother, and retired professional employment recruiter. She is an active volunteer for LFL including being a Life Team Leader and speaker. She serves as a sidewalk counselor with 40 Days for Life and much more. In her talk "Shaking the Family Tree" Patti tells her life journey as a rape-conceived and adopted woman of faith.
